Re: Jeanette Y. Brown vs. Deborah J. Piazza
In the United States District Court; Southern Division.
Case No. 1:21 – CV 02326 (AJN)

Dear Judge Alison J. Nathan:

Good day to you. Enclosed herewith, please find my request for extension to file, in the matter of Trustee's Expungement and Religious Inequities. To properly represent myself regarding these concerns; time it needed to obtain Legal Counsel, Legal Representative to fairly respond to the Trustee's recent brief.

Your Honor, thank you in advance for your consideration of this matter. The Lord bless you.

Sincerely,

Jeanette Y. Brown

To The Honorable Judge, Alison J. Nathan:

As the Appellant proceeding Pro Se in this matter, I have striven to comply with all mandates of the Court and to the best of my ability respond in an amiable manner.

Due to personal financial limitations, I committed myself to handle this Legal matter as a Pro Se proceeding. I am herewith making a Request, an Appeal to the Court.

A document consisting of thirty (30) pages, postmarked January 14th, 2022, was mailed to my address from the Legal representatives of the Appellee.

A second mailing of documents dated January 19th, 2022, consisting of twenty-seven (28) pages was also forwarded to the same address.

While I cannot attest to the date either document arrived at my post office, I did not retrieve both documents until Tuesday, January 25, 2022, after visiting a few days prior and not receiving any such mail. Given the combined number of pages fifty-eight (58) and the mailing dates, January 14th and January 19th, 2022, and my limited legal knowledge, I am herewith making a Request / Appeal to the Court. I must now seek Professional Legal Service.

I am therefore requesting of the Court for an extension of time to fully respond to the Brief filed by the Appellee in a manner that protects my interest and supports my Church, Bronx Miracle Gospel Tabernacle.

I do not seek to delay nor disrupt the proceedings of this legal matter but seeks a Fair and Amicable opportunity to defend and protect my legal and personal interests.

I would like to thank the Court for considering this request and prayerfully awaits its reply. Thank you.
